Next Steps

Now that you're accepted to Benedictine University, here are your next steps:

- Visit Campus and Picture Yourself Here. Get an inside look at the Benedictine experience with a visit to Lisle, Ill. campus or sign up for a virtual visit or event to connect with some of our faculty, current students or your admissions counselor.
- File Your FAFSA. Submit your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) starting October 1 at fafsa.gov. Filling out the FAFSA ensures you receive the largest amount of financial aid you're eligible for. BenU's school code is 001767.
- Pay Your Deposit. Ready to accept your offer of admission? Reserve your spot in our flock by paying your $100 enrollment deposit at ben.edu/deposit or contact your admissions counselor to discuss your next steps.
- Take Your Online Placement Test. Placement testing at Benedictine University is done entirely online. Select your testing date at ben.edu/placement
- Attend An Admitted Student Day or Signing Day Celebration. Admitted Student Days are visit days especially catered to students like you! You'll get the opportunity to interact with faculty and current students, ask questions about your financial aid package, learn about student engagement opportunities, and if you're ready, celebrate committing to BenU!
- Complete Your Pre-Registration Survey And Connect With Our Academic Advisors. Beginning in April you will begin to work with your academic advisor to get registered for the fall semester. We encourage you to take the above steps once you are ready to ensure the best class selection.
- Get Ready to S.O.A.R. S.O.A.R. (Student Orientation And Readiness) is your one-stop shop for everything you need to be ready for the fall semester. Learn how to navigate your Benedictine technology platforms, how to get involved on campus, housing, meal plans, financial planning, and more!

Welcome to Benedictine University

Benedictine University welcomes you into a new world of possibilities. Fueled by a vision for turning dreams into reality and grounded in centuries-old Benedictine traditions, we provide a solid foundation and open environment to explore, learn and grow.

At Benedictine, we celebrate your uniqueness and empower your growth as we propel you forward. Your success is ours.

The Red Thread defines the uniqueness of Benedictine University. It connects us through academic, professional and social interactions. It etches into the fabric of our existence the mission and values we've honored since 1887.

The Red Thread binds our collective cultures and experiences—tying us together as one family.

We invite you to take hold of the Red Thread of Benedictine University.
And together, we will create a vibrant future.
